

CLAY2GO STEAM OUTREACH EXHIBIT IN YOUR SCHOOL

The Clay Center is launching Clay2Go, a discovery museum on wheels that travels throughout West Virginia providing engaging, interactive STEAM exhibits for K-8 students and their families.

Clay2Go brings classroom lessons to life through 36 hands-on activities centered around five basic themes – Math, Forces & Motion, Magnetism, Electricity, and Light & Color.

CLAY2GO VISITS ARE FREE OF CHARGE TO ALL WV PUBLIC SCHOOLS

- Clay2Go is much more than a single-day experience, the mobile exhibit stays at the site for at least one week and can serve many students and grades at a time
- Accommodates approximately 30 students per session and can be presented in up to eight 45-minute sessions per school day
- Travel, teacher and volunteer training, and curriculum guides are all included

EASY, STRESS-FREE SET UP

- Clay2Go Exhibit is battery-powered and easy to charge
- Activity stations setup up and store easily with custom-designed modular storage systems
- Clay Center Outreach Staff ensures the exhibit is set up correctly and provides staff/volunteer training
